“ Charlene and I were good friends all through our school days. She was fun and kind and we got into mischief together a lot. I hadn't heard from her for years until we touched bases again on Facebook. She will be missed here, but I look forward to our reunion when Christ takes me home. Judy Baumann Hippi

“ Charlene was seven yrs. older than I so, growing up I don't remember much. Seeing pictures, she was always holding me though; which is nice. I remember helping watch Theresa (her oldest) as Charlene went to Cosmetology school and then later watching all three of her children (Theresa, Tony, and Brian) before they moved to Alabama. We (as a family, Mom, Dad, and siblings) visited a few times in Alabama but these last few years Charlene came here to California, and we had some sister time. Thanks to Facebook, texting and phone calls we stayed in touch; which was beautiful. She was not one to judge but would tell you something that an older, wiser, sister should do. I enjoyed helping her with a local site she was part of starting on Facebook for our local High School out here in California, it's for all those that have passed away that attended our schools out here from 1961 to current. She was one of the original Six that started the site/page. I was blessed to be able to join and help out as well, sadly, three of the originals have now passed on, Charlene included. I will miss the visits she made here to California, the texts, phone calls and chatting on Facebook. Charlene loved her family a lot. I was sorry to hear she couldn't seem to fight off this last cold she had and that it went into pneumonia, but with her condition, she couldn't fight any longer. We are all saddened by her loss, but we know we will see her again someday. Love you, Charlene you have forever placed footprints in my heart that will stay there a lifetime. Rest in Peace, Charlene (my sweet sister), your loving sister, Pam.
