“ Donald has been a friend and mentor for most all of the 27 years I have lived in Baldwin County. We always shared mule stories and he often stopped by my farm to watch the progress of my mules and BLM mustangs as I trained them for competition or resale. The photo I posted is a photo from 2011 when I was in the round pen with an especially tough mustang named Top Gear. It was always such a pleasure and an honor to have him stop by Arco Farm. Over the years his mind stayed sharp as a tack and his stories included small details that were etched into his memory. His broad knowledge base and life experiences never failed to fascinate me. I loved visiting him at his farm as well and seeing his mules, hogs, chickens, and of course his Jersey milk cow! Donald will be greatly missed but will always live on in my heart!

“ Uncle Donald was A true genuine man... Even tho as a little girl i was scared to death if him lol... But the besr memory i can say that he recently reminded of was him taking Donna and myself hunting in Jackson Ala... Us 2 girls just wouldn't be quiet 😭😭 well i told him its bc we were bored and it was to early and cold... But he made it fun giving us grief bc he didn't get a deer... He was so loved and very well respected through out Foley... He will be missed all.. Rest Easy Uncle Donald....

“ When I first asked Donald if I could apprentice with him he was shoeing my cutting horse. So he shod three of her feet and I did the last foot. He always called me sug not sugar. He said now sug if you're going to drive a nail just send it on . Don't just tap it cause you will just piss the horse off. (His words not mine). So I drove the nails through the shoe like nailing a 2 x 4 . Donald hollared sug! Sug ! Easy you might quick 'em! I said "you said send it on". That was the start of a long friendship. Blessings to his family. Cindy Mink
