“ I just learned of Davey's passing. I watched him in class with California Ballet here in San Diego, as well as in performances with the company. I was impressed with his dancing and his courteous, accepting nature. When I saw him perform in a modern dance piece I realized he was also a very versatile dancer who deserved to be encouraged and to have his talents nurtured. I'm sorry he was taken from us way too soon and that his gifts are no longer available to those who appreciated them. I will miss him and mourn not just his passing but the loss of a budding artist who had much to give. My sympathy to all who knew and loved him.

“ My daughter and I had the pleasure of knowing Davey during the last 10 months at Southern Edge Dance.

We got to know him as not only a talented ballet teacher for our girls but also as a wonderful person! Our girls loved him. He was always so kind and genuine. As a teacher, he pushed our girls to work hard and become better dancers but he also loved to have fun with them. My daughter Livvy, who is 10, danced a little solo with him in our Frozen performance and I was blown away at how awesome they were! He made her look as professional as he already was!!! It is a memory that I will cherish forever. That performance changed Livvy's perspective on ballet. Not only did she love that performance with him but she also saw how hard work and discipline paid off, something that Davey instilled in her and the other girls during every lesson and rehearsal.

We will miss you terribly 'Mr Davey" . We are all so incredibly sad at your passing. Our girls are heartbroken. Thank you for all you did for them.

We know that you will be watching over them as they dance.

“ I had the blessing of working with Davey on our Nutcracker for two seasons. He was such a kind person and so supportive to our dancers. He danced the role of The Nutcracker and the Cavalier for us at Dancers Inc. in Decatur, AL. His spirit will be missed here and our love and sympathy goes out to his family and friends.

“ Davey and I went to ASFA together. It was the best time of our lives. We were in the same class and also lived in the dorms so we were always getting into trouble together. Whether it was sneaking ice cream bars from the lunchroom or running down the halls screaming after hours he always knew how to make me laugh. He had this mischievous sparkle in his eye when he had a trick up his sleeve (which was always). And we all remember the time he shaved off his eyebrows! His laugh was contagious and charming. But no matter what he always welcomed me with open, caring arms when I needed him. And no matter how much time went by he was always there just how we left off. I'm just sad that I let too much time escape us since I last saw him. These past few days have been a blur of shock. How could we lose one of our own? I send my heartfelt condolences to his family. He has an ASFA family that loved him and he will live on forever in our memories. I love you Davey!

“ Davey was a student at ASFA where I teach. I always loved to watch him dance. He attended retreats I facilitated and, along with some other students, joined us in playing competitive Ultimate Frisbee. He was an athlete. A very talented athlete. At his core, he had a big heart and compassionate spirit. He pushed too hard at times. Love and prayers to all who know and love him. Peace

“ Davey was my dance partner for a piece my senior year. He was a really good and really fun partner, supporting and lifting when you needed it and also making you laugh. I ran into him a couple of years ago and he was very encouraging, telling me to go after my dreams. He was always charismatic and fun, and also disciplined and talented. I'm not sure there has ever been a more unique personality for a male dancer. He was one of a kind.

“ I will always remember Davey for his quick smile and for being such a sweet and funny young man. I will never forget how he lobbied me to be in my wedding, as if I wouldn't have asked him to participate without his persuasion. He was loved by so many of us, and will be sorely missed.

“ When Davey was a young boy, I cut his hair. He always carried on a conversation. He was a sweet boy and I always enjoyed him. I watched him dance with true talent. I was so in hopes that he would do great things when he grew up. I'm so sorry that he passed but I know he's in a better place, mentally, physically and spiritually. I will always remember him as a special little boy who had an aunt who loved him like her own. God Bless you all at this sad time.
