“ Dear Evie, Mark, Colleen, & Kim,
My deepest sympathy to you all over the passing of George. Living up here on "the hill" in Hague, I have very fond memories of George, and later Mark, coming up here to go hunting with Uncle Wally Conlon, Dave & Miles Waters, my dad Gordon Cameron, and all the others who joined the hunting party. George never came up but what he would always be sure to take the time to visit each house on the hill to see my grandma, my mom Hannah, Aunt Kate and Bobby. I can recall how much he liked to pick on my mom and she would fire right back. The last time I saw George and Evie was some years ago, after my dad had died. They were up and all of us on the hill, including my son, had dinner at Dave & Joan's camp. George managed to pick on Mom and Aunt Marg DelSignore. It was a wonderful time and we managed to capture that special evening in photos. So glad we did. My heart goes out to all of you, I know how difficult this is. May our Lord and Savior bless each of you and grant you peace and comfort. Much love, Donna Cameron Frasier.
